Complaint
Right To BAIL Under United States Constitution

"Come Now, Charles T. Glover, pro-se", "indigent" plaintiff, would first ask that this Court take Notice that plaintiff is currently detained at Shelby County jail with limited resources and legal authorities and there ask that this Court construe these pleadings "liberally" and not as those that are drafted by legal attorneys. Haines vs.
Kerner, U.S. Supreme Court, and files this complaint asking that the Court would grant the plaintiff Bail.

1. On or about January 15, 2013, the plaintiff visited his probation officer, ~~John~~
Jakeua Dotson.

2. On or about January 15, 2013, probation officer Jakeua Dotson gave plaintiff a urinalysis drug test.

3. On or about January 25, 2013, the urinalysis test result was negative ^{for illegal} and legal drugs.

4. On or about January 25, 2013, the plaintiff received a phone call from Officer Show (sheriff) from 201 people, ~~stating that~~

stating that the plaintiff had a warrant for his (the plaintiff) arrest.

5. On or about January 23, 2013, the plaintiff found that the warrant was for "violation of probation" because the plaintiff's urine test yielded no medications prescribed by the plaintiff's mental ill doctor.

6. On or about January 24, 2013, the plaintiff turned himself in at 201 people to officer Shaw (Shaw), at Shelby County jail.

~~He~~ 7. On or about January 24, 2013, the plaintiff found that he was being detained without bail.

8. On or about January 24, 2013, the plaintiff had not been charged with Murder I, which warrants
"no" Bail.

9. Wherefore, where the plaintiff ~~is being held~~ is being held.
is being held or deprived of his personal liberty, where the plaintiff stand to lose his business (Car lot) and other accomplishments, the plaintiff pray that the Court take Jurisdiction over this case and Order that the Criminal Court, Division 6, 6th Floor, grant the plaintiff Bail. January 30, 2012, C. T. S.
